maxwell fry and jane drew were pioneers of modern architecture in britain and its former colonies from the late 1920s through to the early 1970s as a barometer of twentieth century architecture their work traces the major cultural developments of that century from the development of modernism its spread into the late colonial arena and finally to its re evaluation that resulted in a more expressive formalist approach in the post war era this book thoroughly examines fry and drew s highly influential tropical architecture in west africa and india whilst also discussing their british work such as their post world war ii projects for the festival of britain harlow new town pilkington brothers headquarters and coychurch crematorium it highlights the collaborative nature of fry and drew s work including schemes undertaken with elizabeth denby walter gropius denys lasdun pierre jeanneret and le corbusier positioning their architecture writing and educational endeavours within a wider context this book illustrates the significant artistic and cultural contributions made by fry and drew throughout their lengthy careers this study recovers italo calvino s central place in a lost history of interdisciplinary thought politics and literary philosophy in the 1960s drawing on his letters essays critical reviews and fiction as well as a wide range of works primarily urban planning and design theory and history circulating among his primary interlocutors this book takes as its point of departure a sweeping reinterpretation of invisible cities passages from calvino s most famous novel routinely appear as aphorisms in calendars posters and the popular literature of inspiration and self help reducing the novel to vague abstractions and totalizing wisdom about thinking outside the box the shadow of postmodern studies has had a similarly diminishing effect on this text rendering up an accomplished but ultimately apolitical novelistic experimentation in endless deconstructive deferrals the shiny surfaces of play and the ultimately rigged game of self referentiality in contrast this study draws on an archive of untranslated italian and french language materials on urban planning architecture and utopian architecture to argue that calvino s novel in fact introduces readers to the material history of urban renewal in italy france and the u s in the 1960s as well as the multidisciplinary core of cultural life in that decade the complex and continuous interplay among novelists and architects scientists and artists literary historians and visual studies scholars his last love poem for the dying city was in fact profoundly engaged deeply committed to the ethical dimensions of both architecture and lived experience in the spaces of modernity as well as the resistant practices of reading and utopian imagining that his urban studies in turn inspired francis palmer smith was the principal designer of atlanta based pringle and smith one of the leading firms of the early twentieth century south smith was an academic eclectic who created traditional history based architecture grounded in the teachings of the cole des beaux arts as the architecture of francis palmer smith shows smith was central to the establishment of the beaux arts perspective in the south through his academic and professional career after studying with paul philippe cret at the university of pennsylvania smith moved to atlanta in 1909 to head the new architecture program at the georgia institute of technology he would go on to train some of the south's most significant architects including philip trammell shutze flippen burge preston stevens ed ively and lewis e crook jr in 1922 smith formed a partnership with robert s pringle in atlanta savannah chattanooga jacksonville sarasota miami and elsewhere smith built office buildings hotels and art deco skyscrapers buildings at georgia tech the baylor school in chattanooga and the darlington school in rome georgia gothic revival churches standardized bottling plants for coca cola and houses in a range of traditional period styles in the suburbs smith's love of medieval architecture culminated with his 1962 masterwork the cathedral of st philip in atlanta as his career drew to a close modernism was establishing itself in america smith's own modern aesthetic was evidenced in the more populist modern of art deco but he never embraced the abstract machine aesthetic of high modern robert m craig details the role of history in design for smith and his generation who believed that architecture is an art and that ornament cultural reference symbolism and tradition communicate to clients and observers and enrich the lives of both this book was supported in part by generous grants from the graham foundation for advanced studies in the fine arts and the georgia tech foundation inc interior technicity unplugged and or switched on invites reflection on how interiors have always been augmenting entities and how they continue to be so in other words extending facilitating and consolidating bodies within socio cultural environments rather than seeing an interior as an inside in opposition to a world beyond it asks what modes of folding inward have equipped and enabled the spatial environment technicity the world of tools and technical objects that extend and mediate memory as bernard steigler 1998 describes it has never been what inside ness in its sheltering of life keeps at bay mediation is from the start technical indexed to inscribing practices rich in temporal and embodied implications by this reading interiors have always been augmented and augmenting in the sense of the latin augmentare to increase enlarge or enrich this idea journal issue considers this mode of folding inward as a condition of an interior's specificity whether it be a small structure such as a tramping hut or a tiny house a large complex interior environment such as an airport or shopping mall handmade with local materials such as samoan fale or the result of manufacturing processes assembling artificial and prefabricated elements as in the case of a spacecraft boat or train interiors are augmented mediated generated or embellished by technologies the effect of these technologies is not neutral one's experience of an interior is significantly influenced by the affective resonance of its technologies brussels a complex city with a turbulent architectural and urban past forms a compelling case for examining the tensions between urban politics architectural imaginations society's needs and desires and the city's history and fabric inspired by pragmatist relational philosophies this book tests the potential of criticality through practice it studies a series of critical actions and tools which occurred in brussels architectural and urban culture after 1968 in addition by showing how pragmatist relational philosophies can be made relevant for architectural theory the book opens hopeful potentials for how architectural theory can better contribute to the formulation of a critical agenda for architecture as san juan nears the 500th anniversary of its founding arleen pabón charneco explores the urban and architectural developments that have taken place over the last five centuries transforming the site from a small caribbean enclave to a sprawling modern capital as the oldest european settlement in the united states and second oldest in the western hemisphere san juan is an example of the experimentation that took place in the american borderland from 1519 to 1898 when spanish sovereignty ended the author also investigates post 1898 examples to explore how architectural ideas were exported from the mainland united states pabón charneco covers the varied architectural periods and styles aesthetic theories and conservation practices of the region and explains how the development of the architectural and urban artifacts reflect the political cultural social and religious aspects that metamorphosed a small military garrison into a urban center of international significance gothic architecture is the most visible and striking product of medieval european civilization jean bony whose reputation as a medievalist is worldwide presents its development as an adventure of the imagination allied with radical technical advances the result of a continuing quest for new ways of handling space and light as well as experimenting with the mechanics of stone construction he shows how the new architecture came unexpectedly to be invented in the paris region around 1140 and follows its history in the great cathedrals of northern france and dozens of other key buildings to the end of the thirteenth century when profound changes occurred in the whole fabric of medieval civilization rich illustrations including comprehensive maps enhance the text and themselves constitute an exceptionally valuable documentation despite its evident scholarly intention this book is not meant for specialists alone but is conceived as a progressive infiltration into the complexities of history at work revealing its unpredictable vitality to the uninitiated curious mind an anthology of the pivotal theoretical texts that have defined architecture culture in the late twentieth century in the discussion of architecture there is a prevailing sentiment that since 1968 cultural production in its traditional sense can no longer be understood to rise spontaneously as a matter of social course but must now be constructed through ever more self conscious theoretical procedures the development of interpretive modes of various stripes post structuralist marxian phenomenological psychoanalytic as well as others dissenting or eccentric has given scholars a range of tools for rethinking architecture in relation to other fields and for reasserting architectures general importance in intellectual discourse this anthology presents forty seven of the primary texts of architecture theory introducing each with an explication of the concepts and categories necessary for its understanding and evaluation it also presents twelve documents of projects or events that had major theoretical repercussions for the period several of the essays appear here in english for the first time contributors diana agrest stanford anderson archizoom george baird jennifer bloomer massimo cacciari jean louis cohen beatriz colomina alan colquhoun maurice culot jacques derrida ignasi de solá morales peter eisenman robin evans michel foucault kenneth frampton mario gandelsonas frank gehry jürgen habermas john hejduk denis hollier bernard huet catherine ingraham fredric jameson charles a jencks jeffrey kipnis fred koetter rem koolhaas leon krier sanford kwinter henri lefebvre daniel libeskind mary mcleod alberto pérez gómez josé quetglas aldo rossi colin rowe massimo scolari denise scott brown robert segrest jorge silvetti robert somol martin steinmann robert a m stern james stirling manfredo tafuri georges teyssot bernard tschumi anthony vidler paul virilio mark wigley
